SUBSTITUTING HOURS FOR DAYS

THE "Lone Eagle," Charles A. Lindbergh, had spanned the distance from Roosevelt Field, New York, to Le Bourget, Paris. He had reduced days' traveling time to hours. The European nations had lifted him to their shoulders—the acknowledged hero of the hour. And finally he was homeward bound aboard the cruiser "Memphis."

All America was agog with preparations for his welcome. And it was but natural that the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America, whose stimulus has brought this nation to the forefront among the conquerors of the air, should play a leading part in the celebration.

The society determined upon an intrinsic memento to mark the occasion — an official medal of appropriate artistic merit.

But only a few days remained, and such a thing always required weeks for production!

Could it be done? Many medalists said not, but one organization, the Robbins Company, said it was possible. They were selected.

John Gregory, a noted American sculptor, rose to the occasion and produced the model for the medallion in 3 days and nights.

The model was rushed to the Robbins Company plant at Attleboro, Mass., where, under direction of Dr. G. F. McIntire, the President, everything was in readiness to complete the work and make delivery for the celebration.

A detailed account of how this New England organization of metal craftsmen made possible the seemingly impossible—how the functioning of every department was systematized to a split-second time schedule—how the program was actually completed several hours ahead of even the minimum previous estimate—is not feasible here.

Suffice it to say that before noon on the day of presentation, Plane No. 1062 rose from Attleboro, Mass., bearing not only the gold medal for Colonel Lindbergh, but also 100 silver and 1500 bronze duplicates for distribution at the testimonial dinner held that evening in New York.

The Robbins Company again demonstrated its capacity to accomplish things while others were wondering if it could be done, when, in the short space of 4 days, they completed the platinum and gold medals presented by Governor Fuller of Massachusetts to the eight trans-atlantic and trans-pacific fliers on their visit to Boston, July 22, 1927.

These achievements are typical of the service and ability of the Robbins Company, Craftsmen in Metal, not only in this department but in their many manufacturing activities where quality is paramount.

FOR THE NATIONAL PASTIME

Beginning with Arthur Vance, in 1924, the National Baseball League has each year awarded a bronze medal together with a purse of money to the man the Commission decided was the most outstanding valuable player in the League. In 1925 it was Rogers Hornsby; in 1926, Robert A. O'Farrell; and in 1927, Paul G. Waner of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

This medal which we illustrate above, actual size, is modelled in bas-relief and is one of a long list of special awards of national interest which the Robbins Company are called upon to furnish.

In addition to all the glory and professional satisfaction, not to mention the financial consideration, that goes to the Baseball Team which wins the World Series, each player on the winning team receives a special memento as a token of appreciation from the League. This may be a fob, a charm or a ring. In 1926 the St. Louis Cardinals all received rings, one of which is shown above as another sample of Robbins' Craftsmanship.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Read Carefully Before Ordering

DESIGNS

ALL medals and charms illustrated in this supplement are photographed direct from the finished article and are shown actual size. Silver trophies are shown with actual dimensions given.

The designs in this supplement are to a large extent new, with the added virtue of being original. We have retained a few of the numbers which have proved to be popular year after year.

To appreciate their real beauty you must see the medals in gold, silver or bronze, hand finished with our high standard of workmanship, made possible by the experience of thirty-five years in the designing and making of medals and similar items.

FINISH

All our medals and charms are heavyweight material carefully hand finished. Bronze medals are struck from genuine bronze. We do not use brass plated to imitate real bronze. The quality of the material used is plainly stamped on all silver and gold items so that you have a guarantee of the quality.

PRICES

PRICES ARE LIST, SUBJECT TO A LIBERAL DISCOUNT WHICH WILL BE QUOTED ON REQUEST. Engraved letters or numerals are charged extra.

Medals are usually furnished in sets of three, gold for first with a blue ribbon, silver for second with a red ribbon, bronze for third with a white ribbon and if a fourth prize is used, it is generally bronze with a green ribbon.

Prices are quoted for separate qualities so that a set may be selected of a material at a price within the limits of your appropriation. Each medal comes in a leatherette box. Charms are furnished with rings for attaching to Waldemar chain.

We will quote special prices on ten or more sets of medals using three medals to a set including a special lettered die and engraving of event if required. If an appropriation is limited, let us know the amount—the quantity of medals required and we will send samples with prices to fit your requirements. Whenever a substantial number of medals is wanted, 100 or more of either a stock or special design, it is always advisable to have a special price figured which will show a reduction corresponding to the increased quantity.

ENAMEL

Enamel is seldom used on regulation medals although occasionally design detail is arranged to include the use of color either in a lettered panel or possibly forming a part of the background. This occurs more frequently in small charms where it is customary to use black enamel giving the effect of black onyx. Wherever enamel is shown in any of our designs we use only the best quality of hard glass enamel which is inlaid by a firing process in an electric furnace at a temperature approximating 1500° Fahrenheit.

TERMS

Terms are net 30 days. References are required from parties who are not known to us. Goods to be shipped C. O. D. require a deposit of at least one-third the amount of the bill.

PANEL SERIES OF MEDALS AND CHARMS

On page nine we show 48 panels, representing a very complete list of events. These shields are made in three sizes and can be applied on several of the medals and charms which are designed to accommodate them. The panel idea permits of a standard, distinctive design for your association or school, at the same time featuring the event without an abnormal die charge.

DELIVERIES

Stock medals without engraving can usually be shipped within one week after order is received. If engraving is wanted or a special die is required, two to three weeks should be allowed.

We issue special leaflets covering items for Winter Sports, Basketball, Football, Water Sports, Summer Camps, Track and Field Events and Bowling.

If you are particularly interested in any of these, write for information.

TRACK AND FIELD EVENTS

Widespread popularity of our panel medal F-2608 induced us to carry out the same arrangement of design detail in a smaller size which would be appropriate for use as a Waldemar charm as well as a medal. F-4048 shown on this page bids fair to become as popular as the parent design No. F-2608.

We can at the present time supply a panel with the correct figure for any recognized standard event and a great many of the special. The panels are furnished applied on medals and charms as shown in the catalogue. They are not supplied as separate pieces except as brooch pins, buttons or small charms, at the following prices.

MINIATURE CHARMS

We list on this page, miniature ball charms, basketball, baseball and football in two weights—"heavy" and "light."

Charms designated "heavyweight" will be the same substantial weight we have always listed which have found favor with most of the large College Athletic Associations. The gold is of a thickness to permit cutting letters or numerals for inlaid French Glass enamel.

To provide also for a charm to be used where there is a limited appropriation and cost must be debated, we are listing these charms made from the same dies, same grade of careful hand finish, using lighter weight material, thereby effecting a saving in gold which is reflected in reduced prices.

One important feature must be noted in ordering these lightweight charms. They cannot be satisfactorily made with inlaid enamel letters, but the letters may be hand engraved or the charms may be made with a large applied enameled letter, either ⅛ inch or ¼ inch.

Inlaid enamel letters are not recommended on gold filled charms because of the stoning process always necessary to remove the surplus of glass enamel.

This stoning in addition to removing the surplus enamel obviously removes some of the gold from the surface around the letters which cannot be satisfactorily replaced by electroplating, hence the wearing qualities are impaired.

The following price schedule is list from which we can allow a liberal discount.

PRICES EACH

	Lightweight 10 K	Lightweight 14 K	Heavyweight 10 K	Heavyweight 14 K	Gold Filled	Sterling Silver

You will note football F-2849 is the same size and shape as charm 4140 but in pebbled or rough finish to imitate genuine pigskin. We also list basketball F-2444 in this special pebbled finish. This charm is same shape and size as basketball F-1381.

Inlaid enamel letters cannot be used on these pebbled surface charms because of the special finish. Small letters and numerals for names and dates can be engraved.

LETTERING PRICES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Large cut in enameled letter, on sterling silver, $0.80 each; on 10 K or 14 K, $1.00 each.

Large applied enameled letter, one or two colors, on sterling silver or gold filled, $1.00 each; on 10 K, $1.50 each; on 14 K, $2.00 each.
